"Lifestyles of Butterflies in the Garden"

Saturday, March 13
9 a.m. – 11 a.m.

Learn about these fascinating creatures and how you can attract them to your own yard. Alana Edwards, Education & Training Coordinator for CES, will give an interactive presentation followed by a stroll through the butterfly garden.

Afterwards explore DuPuis' many hiking trails, or take the 6 mile auto tour though the property.

The Nature Lecture Series sponsored by the South Florida Water Management District and coordinated by Florida Atlantic University's Center for Environmental Studies.
